About the Certification Program

Whether you are a beginner or seasoned practitioner, this program is for you. The TCM (Traditional Chinese Medicine) program is designed to further grasp the foundations and principles of TCM and its effective application for more than 1,500 known and documented conditions. More emphasis is placed on the precise location of acupuncture points and on needle techniques for each and every acupuncture point including depth of insertion, angle of treatment and cautionary procedures, traditional examination including tongue diagnosis, pulse diagnosis, moxabustion techniques, facial rejuvenation, eight extra vessel diagnosis and treatment, eight diagnostic criteria, yin/yang principles, classical Chinese diagnostic patterns and prescriptions for each meridian/organ/condition, herbal prescriptions and MEAD diagnosis and treatment.

This series also focuses on the foundation and practice of Five-Element Style Acupuncture and preparation for passage of the National Board of Chiropractic Examiners (NBCE) examination.

About the Instructor
